NEW YORK LIFE GRANTS $10,000 TO SUPPORT Operation Home

Charleston, South Carolina June 9, 2010 — New York Life Insurance Company’s Charleston General Office has awarded a $10,000 grant to Operation Home as part of the Company’s Community Impact Grants (CIG) program.

“New York Life is proud to support Operation Home in our community,” said Ric Collins, managing partner of the Charleston General Office. “It’s gratifying to be able to provide grants to local nonprofits which help meet the needs of the community where New York Life agents, employees, and customers live and work.”

The CIG program, which began in 2008, awards nonprofit organizations that are supported by New York Life agents, field managers and employees and address the needs of the community. Forty-three nonprofits were granted $500,000 through this program in 2009.
